FR. PAUL'S 88TH BIRTHDAY

Did you miss seeing Fr. Paul this summer? Did you know he's back in Prairie du Chien but isn't able to visit parishes due to COVID restrictions? With this in mind, we thought it would be wonderful to shower him with cards to let him know we are thinking of him. His 88th birthday is coming up on October 24, and we hope to shower him with at least 88 cards! Please consider sending a greeting to him:

Message from Fr. John Twenty-eighth Sunday

We are invited to a feast today. We gather around the table of the Lord, summoned by the Holy Spirit to share in this Eucharistic meal with family, friends, and neighbors, fellow pilgrims on the journey. May this feast nourish and sustain us as we go forth in joy to continue building the kingdom of God in our little corner of the world and beyond.

Report on My Road Trip to Iowa

Last Sunday afternoon, I had no commitments so I had time to drive down to the Cedar Rapids, Iowa area to see the devastating effects of the storm that came through several weeks ago. Once I got past Anamosa, I drove straight south on Hwy 1. I saw so many cornfields that were brown and flattened.

I then took some gravel side roads to see the destruction the storm caused to many building also. They had cleaned up most of the twisted steel and wood structures, but there was still much debris in the soybean fields. Some of the corn had been tilled under, but most fields stood, but were flattened and damaged. They hope to salvage some of the corn for feed.

As we harvest our crops this fall, we need to be grateful for being spared this destruction and thank God for all that we have, most importantly the gift of life.

Respect Life Month

Please take time to promote a culture of life in your families and communities. Every life is a miracle from God. Whether it lasts for a brief moment or for a hundred years, each of our lives is a good and perfect gift. At every stage and in every circumstance, we are held in existence by God's love. Our relationships on earth are meant to help us and others grow in perfect love. We are meant to depend on one another, serve each other with humility, and walk together in times of suffering. Every life is worth living.

MESSAGE FROM FR. PAUL FAGAN

Dear Friends of Many Many Years,

St. Peter Parish in Nkololo was formally opened on 30 May 2007 by Bishop Aloysi Balina, now deceased. I had the privelige of being installed as the first pastor of a parish we built in what was once a cornfield. The good news is that it was built with funds donated by all of you my dear friends. You can be proud of what you have done over the past years. God bless you all. With the parish well established and growing my concern is now continuing expansion of Songambele Health Center that will soon be a Class A1 Hospital. As a hospital we will be expected to have a separate childrens' ward, an eye and dental clinic, to add another refrigeration unit to our mortuary, to add personel, build housing for some of the staff, develop the infrastructure and as I mentioned, provide private rooms. That is a big order!

You may continue your help by writing a check to Roads to Life Tanzania and sending it to PO Box 157, Prairie du Chien, WI 53821. As usual you will recieve a letter/receipt from our tax exempt corporation. You are always in my prayers and Masses. -Fr. Paul

SAINT TERESA OF JESUS (1515-1582)

October 15

Let nothing disturb you; let nothing frighten you.

Gifted with a passionate spirit, young Teresa dreamed of converting Muslims and becoming a martyr. All things are passing; God never changes. But her mother's death when Teresa was fourteen inspired lifelong devotion to Our Lady, and Teresa entered the Carmelites, Mary's order, despite her father's objections and her own fragile health. Patience gains everything. Initially, she enjoyed her lax convent's sociability and "busyness," but mystical prayer and John of the Cross's collaboration inspired her to reform the Carmelites. Whoever has God, lacks nothing. When her ideals encountered resistance and brought suffering, she maintained her peace—and humor. Discovered devouring leftovers, she told her mildly scandalized nuns, "When I fast, I fast! When I eat, I eat!" To nuns demanding less work and more prayer in the convent schedule, she retorted: "What we really need around here are fewer starry eyes and more strong arms!" God alone is enough! The italicized sentences here are her "Breviary Bookmark," the simple, profound prayer of Teresa, the first woman Doctor of the Church. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Love God, serve God; everything is in that.

Reflection

"My God will supply whatever you need…"
- Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

GOD Revealed to the Nations

What wonderful images we have today of the reign of God! Isaiah speaks to us of a great feast—a heavenly feast—a feast of abundance with rich foods and choice wines. It is the Lord's own affair, Isaiah explains, when God will unite all nations, dry every tear, and destroy death forever. Then, too, will the entire earth rejoice in the Lord and bask in God's saving grace.

Jesus speaks of heaven in terms of a feast as well. Here, the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king's wedding feast given for his son. This is a feast of abundance also, with the fattened cattle prepared just so. But many of the people invited don't want to come, so the king invites anyone who would honor his son by their presence there. And Paul tells us that whether we live abundantly or in humble circumstances, we can do all things in the Lord who strengthens us.

"Make no mistake, abortion-on-demand is not a right granted by the Constitution. No serious scholar, including one disposed to agree with the Court's result, has argued that the framers of the Constitution intended to create such a right. Shortly after the Roe v. Wade decision, Professor John Hart Ely, now Dean of Stanford Law School, wrote that the opinion "is not constitutional law and gives almost no sense of an obligation to try to be." Nowhere do the plain words of the Constitution even hint at a "right" so sweeping as to permit abortion up to the time the child is ready to be born. Yet that is what the Court ruled. As an act of "raw judicial power" (to use Justice White's biting phrase), the decision by the seven-man majority in Roe v. Wade has so far been made to stick. But the Court's decision has by no means settled the debate. Instead, Roe v. Wade has become a continuing prod to the conscience of the nation."

- President Ronald Reagan, in his book Abortion and the Conscience of the Nation (1983).

Prayer for Children (Relatives) Who Have Left the Catholic Church

Heavenly Father, you gave us the example of our son's mother, Mary, who stood beneath the cross as he died a painful death. Humbly she was unable to do anything to help him as she saw him suffer, but spiritually she was able to offer him to you as he lovingly did your will.

Just as Mary, I feel so helpless about my relatives who have left the Catholic Faith. All I can do now is offer my relatives back to the true Church with your founded. Give me the grace to be patient with them, to be faithful to the truth, and to be prudent in speaking the truth. Fill my heart with charity so that I can be a witness of your love for all.

Hail Mary, refuge of sinners, pray for us.
St. Joseph, patron of the Church, pray for us.
St. Monica, patron of mothers, pray for us.
(This prayer was found on a slip of paper by a parishioner while she taking a walk recently.)
