We are Called to Protect and Cherish All Human Life

On January 22, 1973, the Supreme Court, in the Roe vs. Wade decision, made its worst mistake in history. By declaring that children in the womb are not "persons," it opened the door to tens of millions of abortions. Since then over 63.5 million children have been killed in the womb just in America. In fact each year, over 10,000 of these children (over 490,000 the last 49 years) killed by abortion were 21 weeks of development or beyond. Babies at this stage can feel pain and are only a few weeks from being able to survive outside of the womb. As we mark another Roe vs. Wade commemoration, let us all become involved in the efforts to end abortion. Visit www.TenStepsToEndAbortion.com to learn what you can do.

Sharing Our Blessings

Thank you to everyone who supports our parishes with their time, talents and financial gifts! May God continue to bless you for your generosity and kindness. Please pray for the financial health of our parishes and that all members will generously share the many blessings that God has given them with our parishes.

Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

We gather today to worship the Lord, as faithful people have done throughout history. Noteworthy examples are described in our readings today. When Ezra the priest read the Torah in the streets of Jerusalem after the Jewish people had returned from exile, it brought the people to tears.

In his advice to the bickering Corinthians, Paul points out that, just as God has made all parts of a human body essential for the health of the whole, living as "Christ's body" requires that each member be recognized as necessary for the good of all. Finally, in Luke's Gospel Jesus claims that the Spirit is sending him to relieve human suffering. Like Ezra, he is reading from a scroll, proclaiming God's "law" of mercy to those in need. The Tragic Legacy of Roe v Wade

Since the Supreme Court decisions on January 22, 1973 that legalized abortion through all nine months of pregnancy, there have been few legal restrictions on this brutal ending of life. Contrary to the proponents who worked hard to make it legal, abortion has not solved the problems of poverty, family breakdown, child abuse, or domestic violence. Instead these problems have grown worse and our country is even more divided. Now many people have come to view abortion as a legal right rather than the ending of a human life. Since abortion is seen as a right, another national debate has gained momentum about the right to end our lives as our choice and to make that choice for someone who we deem has a poor quality of life, but is unable to decide for themselves (euthanasia). Currently, physician-assisted suicide is legal in ten states and the District of Columbia in our country. We as a nation have moved down a path toward treating human beings as disposable objects without dignity and a divine soul.

As we are reminded daily during this pandemic, every human life is precious and has value. We are made in the image of God. Legal abortion has not solved the problem of poverty, family breakdown, or domestic violence and it has physically and emotionally injured multitudes of women. The reality is that because of abortion many individuals are not in our communities who would have taken their place in our society with their own unique gifts.

Let us pray that those who have chosen to have an abortion or who have pushed someone else to do this may seek the mercy of God. We pray that all Christians may work to help women and nurture and protect children especially those who are developing in the womb. We pray that we as a nation may turn away from evil and down the path to cherish each human person at all stages of life from conception to natural death. And we pray that this extends to people of all races and all areas regardless of their economic situation.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church

2258 "Human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains for ever in a special relationship with the Creator, who is its sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim for himself the right directly to destroy an innocent human being."

ST. ANGELA MERICI (c. 1474-1540)

Feast Day January 27

Born in Northern Italy, orphaned in childhood, Angela Merici faced a society in which education was largely the privilege of wealthy young men and based primarily in monastic schools. This reality shaped Angela's insightful conviction that society's disorder was caused by disorder in the home, and a lack of model Christian mothers the result of neglecting the education of young women. Transform the Christian family by placing an educated wife and mother at its heart, Angela believed, and the whole world would be renewed in Christ! So she gathered a small group of unmarried women, many of them Franciscan Tertiaries (lay affiliates) like herself, and set out to educate poor girls, free of charge, in their homes. She and her band of teachers called themselves companions, pioneering a new form of non-cloistered religious life for women, bearing witness to evangelical simplicity in the midst of the world, not as a formal "order" but as the Company (compagnia) of Saint Ursula. Known today as the Ursulines, Angela Merici's spiritual daughters continue serving the Church and society in a rich diversity of ministries. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SALVE REGINA

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
our life our sweetness and our hope.

To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve;
To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping
in this valley of tears.

Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Reflection

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." (I CORINTHIANS 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to pray and discern your gifts from the Holy Spirit. Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

Celebrate Life

"The fact that we know that we are right about the sacred value of human life should make us humble and more determined to spread this message by the love shown in our lives and our willingness to be servants of life. As St. John reminds us, "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us" (1 Jn 1:8). Pro-lifers are convinced – mightily convinced – of the boundless mercy of God. That is the light we bring to the world: the truth about God's love, about forgiveness, about the beauty of human life in all its stages and states." J. Michael Miller, CSB, Archbishop of Vancouver, Canada, Homily at Holy Innocents Annual Pro-Life Mass, January 12, 2010
