CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

2258 "Human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains for ever in a special relationship with the Creator, who is its sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim for himself the right directly to destroy an innocent human being."

Each parish will have its own separate location to complete the survey. Paper surveys are available at Masses.

THE HUMANITY OF JESUS CHRIST

All three readings today support—each in its own way, of course—a reflection on the humanity of Jesus Christ and how that humanity played a key role in the drama of our salvation. Although not chosen specifically to coordinate with the other two readings, today's second reading does in fact carry forward the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable way. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in his human nature Jesus has known the same sufferings and testing that are our own experience. Because he can "sympathize with our weaknesses," we can "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy." For the author of Hebrews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for his redemptive death, as well as an invitation to us to find in Jesus someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles. ## WE NEED HELP, BUT WE DON'T THINK WE DO

If we listen to advice about how to deal with big problem in our life like a conflict or an addiction, we are told to get help. Then when we think of larger problems in our nation or world, we push for some economic policy or political solution as an answer to a societal problem. But with eyes of faith in Christ Jesus, we see his suffering, death and resurrection as our hope for humanity. This was already foretold by the Prophet Isaiah more than 700 years before the time of Christ.

"Because of his affliction

He shall see the light in fullness of days;
Through his suffering, my servant shall justify many,
and their guilt he shall bear." Isaiah 53:10-11

Since we see many threats to human dignity and human life itself today we are tempted to doubt the effect of Christ's suffering and death for us. It is not that Christ has not accomplished salvation for us. Instead we decide to not seek his help and follow his teaching. Christ desires to help us, to lead us toward what is right and good, and to strengthen our resolve to do the good if we ask for His help.

St. Charles Restoration Celebration

Next Sunday, October 24, Bishop Hying will preside at the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Cassville as we celebrate the restoration of the church. Due to the celebration, there will no 9:15 a.m. Mass at St. Mary's, Bloomington on Sunday.

A Time of Prayer for Those Who Suffer from Illness or Infirmitiy

Christ wants to help us in times of suffering and weakness. He has given us the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick to convey his healing grace and spiritual strengthening.

The weekend of November 13 & 14, I want everyone who is ill, suffering from a chronic ailment, or struggling with the effects of advanced age to have the opportunity to receive this Sacrament. Fr. Healy will be here to assist me on the weekend.

We will offer the opportunity for Confession before all the Masses and the Anointing of the Sick after all five Masses that weekend. I will also be available to visit homes and administer the sacraments.

We are seeking interior photos of St. Mary's first Church especially of the sanctuary and altar areas. Please check through your old photos or photo albums of family members. Please contact the parish office at 994-2526 for more information or if you find a photo.

FEAST OF FAITH-Only Say the Word

The bread is broken, the banquet is prepared, and now we are invited to the feast. Once more the priest holds the host, now broken, for us to see, and invites us to behold the one "who takes away the sins of the world." Truly blessed and happy are those invited to this meal, which is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, the supper of the Lamb (Revelation 19:19). We respond to this invitation with a prayer to the Lord: we acknowledge that we are not worthy, but at the same time we are confident that the One who comes to us can heal us, body and soul. This prayer echoes the story of the centurion in Luke's Gospel. The centurion, a Gentile, asks healing for his servant, but does not consider himself worthy to have Jesus come under his roof—he believes that Jesus can heal his servant with a word, without even seeing him. Jesus is amazed at his faith. It is the same for us. We believe that Jesus speaks to us, comes to us, dwells with us, even though we neither hear his voice nor see his face. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

St. Charles School News

The virtue the children are focusing on in October is reverence, which means showing your deepest respect for things of God.

The younger students learned about St. Tarcisius, a 12-year-old boy who carried the Eucharist to Christians condemned to die during the Roman persecutions of the third century. Tarcisius died from his injuries when a mob turned on him.

The older students learned about St. Margaret Clitherow, a Catholic woman in England who was arrested and imprisoned for harboring fugitive priests. They attempted to force her to deny her faith, but she stood firm. She was condemned to death.

In addition to school-based projects, the children are encouraged to perform home projects for the month that expand their view of the virtue being studied.

The St. Charles School Christmas program is scheduled for Thursday, December 9, at 6:00 p.m. Please plan to join us!

Celebrate Life

"In protecting human life, we must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. We urge Catholics and others to promote laws and social policies that protect human life and promote human dignity to the maximum degree possible. Laws that legitimize abortion, assisted suicide, and euthanasia are profoundly unjust and immoral. We support constitutional protection for unborn human life, as well as legislative efforts to end abortion and euthanasia" (Faithful Citizenship, US Bishops, 2003).

SAINTS ISAAC JOGUES (1560-1646) AND JOHN DE BRÉBEUF (1593-1649) AND THEIR COMPANIONS

October 19

Their mission was to New France, but these missionaries found in present-day New York State and the province of Ontario a world wildly different from the homes they left behind. Six Jesuit priests, Fathers Isaac Jogues, John de Brébeuf, Anthony Daniel, Gabriel Lalemant, Charles Garnier, and Noël Chabanel—and Jesuit lay volunteers René Goupil and John LaLande—shared the gospel with the Native Americans they met, in languages they painstakingly learned, and through images they creatively adapted to the indigenous cultures (for example, John de Brébeuf's " 'Twas in the Moon of Wintertime: the Huron Carol"). But their evangelization was caught up in turmoil beyond their control: a smallpox epidemic, battles between French and English trading interests—the traders united only by their willingness to exploit the Native Americans—and conflict among the tribes themselves, Huron, Mohawk, Iroquois. The missionaries' perseverance despite exhausting hardships, their steadfast courage in facing unspeakable tortures, and undaunted love even for those who martyred them, bore fruit, immediately in Kateri Tekakwitha's sanctity, eventually in the Catholicism that still flourishes in the United States and Canada.
