Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

The job of shepherd and the job of king couldn't be more different from each other. Shepherds are on the lowest rung of society, kings are at the top. But God says, through the prophet Ezekiel, that the Messiah will lead in a way very different from earthly authorities who lord it over their people and cause harm with their poor leadership.

Our King takes on the job himself. Christ, like a shepherd, will give rest, seek out the lost, bring back the strayed and scattered ones. He will heal the wounded and bind up the injured. He does not delegate, but will "shepherd them rightly." We have a king who cares for us and who is not afraid to "judge between one sheep and another" (Ezekiel 34:17).

Great Breakfasts

Everyone is invited to St. Mary's School Drive-Thru Santa-Sized Breakfast next Sunday, November 29, from 8:30-11:00 a.m. There will also be a Christmas Cookie & Candy Sale, and a small gift bag for kids.

Then on Sunday, December 6, you can attend St. Charles Drive-Thru Advent Breakfast at St. Charles School in Cassville from 9:00 a.m.-noon. There will also be a raffle and treats for kids.

WHAT WEEKEND IS THIS?

Most of us would say it is deer hunting weekend, or maybe the weekend before Thanksgiving. But in the Liturgy this weekend it is the Feast of Christ the King, the last Sunday of the church year. We listen to the great judgement scene in Matthew's Gospel, where the Son of Man separates the blessed from the accursed as sheep are separated from the goats. This completes Jesus time of teaching and healing, and then Matthew begins to narrate the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus begins his teaching with the Sermon on the Mount which begins with the Beatitudes. Jesus says that the peacemakers, the merciful, the clean of heart, and those who hunger and thirst for righteousness will be satisfied, shown mercy, and see God. Jesus begins his teaching with this promise and completes his time of teaching with the judgement scene which indicates we will be judged by our treatment of others, especially those in need. This is the way we can show our love of Christ and that our primary desire is to live in his Kingdom.

A SPIRIT OF GRATITUDE

I usually look forward to and appreciated the Thanksgiving Holiday very much, but this year I find it more difficult.

A significant factor for my lack of enthusiasm is the absence of the family gatherings that I look forward to attending. I feel a connection to all those who will be isolated this year because of the pandemic. The sense of fear and uncertainty makes it difficult to bring forth a spirit of gratitude.

But there are many reasons to be grateful. At the center of our lives is a God who came to save us. Jesus Christ brought hope to a world that was constantly experiencing suffering through sin in the world. He came to bring hope and promised to be always with us. This year of 2020 has had the blessing of a good weather for our crops. We had an early and relatively warm and dry fall. In this part of the state, we can enjoy the hunt. We have good neighbors and our faith communities. We have been able to celebrate graduations, first communions, baptisms, confirmations, and weddings with some modifications. All of these reasons, I am grateful.

I hope you all have a blessed Thanksgiving!

Thank You's!

I would like to say a special "Thank You" to everyone who works keep our parishes organized so we can provide spiritual places to gather and share God's word and love.

Thank you to our parish staff for the hours they give to keep things running smoothly. Thank you to our school principal, staff and teachers for their service and dedication to our students and Catholic education. Thank you to the religious education coordinators and teachers for their commitment to sharing the Catholic faith with the next generation.

Thank you to our maintenance people for their care of our facilities. Thank you to our wonderful musicians. There are so many who work hard in our parishes for little financial compensation for all that they do.

I would also like to express my deep gratitude to all of the volunteers who help numerous things in our parishes. I am grateful that they hear the call of Christ and do the work of Christ in our parishes. Finally, I would like to thank all of you who join us to celebrate the sacraments and who support our parishes. May God bless you and keep you always.

BLESSED MIGUEL AGUSTÍN PRO (1891-1927) November 23

Graham Greene's classic The Power and the Glory immortalized Mexico's persecuted Church of the 1920s. But photographs of Father Pro—arms outstretched to image Christ Crucified, kneeling in prayer before the firing squad, crumpled dead on the ground—vividly, visually remind us that not long ago, not far away, the faith we take for granted cost everything! Born to a mining family, Miguel became a Jesuit and was sent to study Catholic labor movements in Belgium in preparation for evangelizing Mexico's workers. But he returned to find a Mexico determined to annihilate Catholicism, and, like priests before him during Roman persecutions, England's Reformation, and in China today, ministered secretly to an "underground Church" until apprehended and sentenced to the firing squad.

In his final moments, Father Pro blessed his executioners, forgave his enemies, and shouted: "Viva el Cristo Rey!—Long Live Christ the King!"—his defiant, dying proclamation of ultimate, transcendent loyalty. Father Pro's martyrdom reinvigorated that beleaguered Church, whose countless faithful, never again afraid, would throng John Paul II when he visited Pro's beloved Mexico fifty-two years later.

Reflection

“...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me” – MATTHEW 25:40
Most of us are generous when it’s convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one’s time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it’s not convenient; when it’s not on our schedule, but on the other person’s schedule.

Celebrate Life

The liturgy for today's Feast of Christ the King tells us that his is "a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love, and peace." Indeed, all these realities fit together perfectly. Truth and life go together, because when we know the truth about God's love and care for creation, we will respect all life. When we know the truth about ourselves, that we belong only to God, then we realize we cannot destroy any other person. A respect for life, personally as well as in our laws and policies as a nation, is the first requirement of justice and an absolute condition of peace. And the holier we are, the more we allow God's grace into our every thought and desire, the more we will adhere to truth, defend life, and promote justice and peace.—Priests for Life website
