LORD, SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

In today’s responsorial psalm the Church sings out: “Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.” All three readings describe how God has answered that prayer already.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in the Gospel passage from John, we read of astonishing events that called the cowering disciples to step out of hiding and proclaim news that would condemn them and change the world forever! In the second reading Paul’s words reach out into the future to us: “we were all given to drink of one Spirit” (1 Corinthians 12:13).

It is our task to truly pray today’s psalm response. Let us together beg the Holy Spirit to renew the earth by renewing the Church, sending many more men and women to serve in its various ministries. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

A REFLECTION ON “SPIRIT” and THE HOLY SPIRIT

When we are young we often equate spirit with demonstration of great energy in sports, excitement for favorite foods, and activities we are passionate about. As we get older we seek energy to get through the day and we long for more energy or “spirit”. Our Catholic vision is that all life and energy come through the spirit of God, the Holy Spirit.

The poetic Sequence prayer of the Pentecost Mass has a beautiful way of directing our prayer to open our heart to the Holy Spirit.

*Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away;
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.
On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue’s sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Amen.*

Evangelization—Bishop Hying

Bishop Hying wants all Catholics in the diocese to commit to evangelization. The first step is for us to accept and live the Good News, the Gospel. We cannot share what we do not possess ourselves. He has four simple things that we can do to grow in faith.

1. Develop or strengthen a habit of going to confession regularly, ideally at least once per month.
2. Prioritize Sunday as the Lord’s Day in your lives especially by attending Mass.
3. Commit to spending at least 15 minutes per day in prayer, ideally praying often with Scripture.
4. Make asceticism (voluntary practices of self-denial) a regular part of their lives, beginning with at least the mandatory observance of Fridays as penitential fasting days throughout the year.

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Because we can not directly see or touch spiritual realities, it is easy to dismiss them. I think it is important to think deeply about the Holy Spirit as one person of the Holy Trinity and what the gifts of the Holy Spirit do for us. We can first go to the prophet Isaiah as he describes the gifts of the Spirit that the Messiah would possess. Jesus showed the fullness of these gifts to us in his life, teaching, and his death. As he prepared to ascend to the Father, he promised these gifts to us: The spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him: a spirit of wisdom and of understanding,

A spirit of counsel and of strength, a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the Lord, and his delight shall be the fear of the Lord.

Let us pray that these gifts, that strengthen in us at our Confirmation, may help us to do what is good and right.

Congratulations to All the Graduates

Congratulations to the students from our parishes who are graduating! Let us keep all the students from our families who are graduating or who have graduated in our prayers as we celebrate their accomplishments and future plans.

Thanks to your prayers I was able to celebrate the Feast of the Ascension at own parish of Saint Peter's in Nkololo. That is the first time I've been back on the altar since last year before I was laid up with covid-19.

Volunteers Are Needed

We are in need of volunteers at all of our parishes to help in a variety of ways. Especially, please prayerfully consider if you could help with our Masses as a reader or usher. We also need of more servers for our Masses.

Reflection

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." - 1 CORINTHIANS 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God's plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

PRAYER FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

O Lord Jesus Christ Who, before ascending into heaven did promise to send the Holy Spirit to finish Your work in the souls of Your Apostles and Disciples, deign to grant the same Holy Spirit to me that He may perfect in my soul, the work of Your grace and Your love. Grant me the Spirit of Wisdom that I may despise the perishable things of this world and aspire only after the things that are eternal, the Spirit of Understanding to enlighten my mind with the light of Your divine truth, the Spirit on Counsel that I may ever choose the surest way of pleasing God and gaining heaven, the Spirit of Fortitude that I may bear my cross with You and that I may overcome with courage all the obstacles that oppose my salvation, the Spirit of Knowledge that I may know God and know myself and grow perfect in the science of the Saints, the Spirit of Piety that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable, and the Spirit of Fear that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God and may dread in any way to displease Him. Mark me, dear Lord with the sign of Your true disciples, and animate me in all things with Your Spirit. Amen.

St. Charles Parish Council

Two years ago, the St. Charles Parish Council Policy was amended. It was decided that St. Charles should have a 9-member council. During this time, the redecoration project was under way and the current council members wanted to see the project completed. Then the pandemic hit, so again the membership amendment was postponed. Now as we are turning the corner on both of these matters, we are looking for nominations of active and dedicated St. Charles Parishioners to fill three positions on the council. You may nominate yourself or another parishioner, with their consent. The new members will start in June and hold a 3-year term. If more than three nominations are received, an election will be held. Please contact the St. Charles Parish office at 725-5595, for more information or for nominations.

FEAST OF FAITH—Liturgy: Work of the Spirit

The Spirit of God who hovered over the waters at the dawn of creation—the Holy Spirit who descended upon the disciples at Pentecost in ever-changing forms in the sound of a mighty wind or tongues of flame—hovers also over our celebration of the liturgy, giving it life, making it real. It is the Spirit of God who draws us, gathering us together, Sunday after Sunday. It is the Spirit of God who called loudly to the inspired writers of the scriptures and who continues to whisper to us, revealing ever-new facets of God's word, granting insight just when we need it. It is by the Spirit's power that, when Christ's words are uttered by the priest, the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. And it is surely the Spirit who inspires us—that is, breathes in us—when, sent forth from the assembly, we seek ways to serve our brothers and sisters, to allow the gospel to come to life in the world. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Saint Rita of Casia -May 22

St. Rita is known as a patroness of lost causes, hopeless situations, difficult marriages, troubled homes, and alienated children. Wise people warn, be careful what you pray for. "Divine Savior," Rita prayed, "let me suffer like you!" Obedient to parents who refused her wish to become a nun, Rita married a man who returned her devotion with twenty years of abuse. When enemies murdered him, Rita's two sons swore revenge. Paintings depict her pointing the angry boys toward Christ crucified, whom she begged to restrain them. Within the year, both sons died. Alone now, Rita went to the convent but was refused. The nuns feared violence, since one of them was related to the murderer. Rita arranged peace between the families, made vows, and became much sought after as a counselor and intercessor for forty years on earth—and ever since in heaven. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Celebrate Life

The Holy Spirit, who came on Pentecost, gave voice to the apostles to proclaim the truth of the Gospel. The Spirit, the Soul of the Church, continues to enable the Church to speak, and enables us to speak in our individual capacity. As Cardinal Elio Sgreccia, former President of the Vatican's Pontifical Academy for Life has said, "The Church must speak out in today's context on fundamental rights, the right to justice, the right to peace, but above all and in the first place, the right to life. If the Church did not speak, did not proclaim the truth, it would be abandoning its duty; it would be unfaithful to society, to the good of society. Therefore, its precise duty is the very liberty to intervene with word, and also with example -- the example of promoting human life, of intervening for the salvation of mankind."
