III Jesse Mullikin & Kristin Collins on June 5, at St. Mary Church, Bloomington.

Baptism

We joyfully welcome to God's holy family Scarlett Jean Haldeman, daughter of Todd and Julie Haldeman, who was baptized at St. Charles Church.

Happy Anniversary to Fr. John

Congratulation to Fr. John on the 44st Anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood on June 3. We are blessed to have him as the pastor of our parishes! Please pray for and encourage more vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

All Diocese of Madison Covid restrictions for Mass will end by June 11.Evangelization—Bishop Hying

Bishop Hying wants all Catholics in the diocese to commit to evangelization. Since we cannot share what we do not possess ourselves. He has four simple things that we can do to grow in faith.

1. Develop or strengthen a habit of going to confession regularly, ideally at least once per month.
2. Prioritize Sunday as the Lord's Day in your lives especially by attending Mass.
3. Commit to spending at least 15 minutes per day in prayer, ideally praying often with Scripture.
4. Make asceticism (voluntary practices of self-denial) a regular part of their lives, beginning with at least the mandatory observance of Fridays as penitential fasting.

Most Holy Trinity

"In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy spirit." We say this when we enter a church, when we begin Mass, when we pray. It is our identity. It reminds us that we are in the presence of God. It joins us to millions of other Christians across time and space. It expresses our belief in the Triune God. Three persons in one God enabled God to become incarnate, enabled God to come down upon us in baptism, and enables God to be with us here today and every day. Let us contemplate the great wonders God has done and continues to do in our daily lives.

Memorial Day Remembrance

As we come to another memorial day, we are not only able to reflect with gratitude on the lives of the men and women who served our country. We are grateful that we are able again to gather to honor them in communities around our country. During the last year a number of veterans have died and we have gathered to pray for them.

Just this last week I have been a part of a funeral Mass for Nicholas John "Jack" Valentine who was killed in a horrific battle during the Korean war. He was a member of Battery B, 57th Field Artillery Battalion, 7th Infantry Division. His funeral Mass was at St. Charles in Cassville. He is one of many people who gave their lives in defense of our country.

We Need the Mass

by Bishop Donald Hying from the May 13, 2021 issue of the Catholic Herald

We can never forget that, on the last night of His earthly life, as Jesus faced betrayal, arrest, mockery, torture, and the Cross, He was thinking of us, not Himself.

At the Last Supper, the Lord wanted to give us the most profound, enduring, intimate, and saving expression of His love for us; wanting to remain with us always, He gave us Himself in the most Holy Eucharist.

This Blessed Sacrament is the greatest gift the Lord could have offered us; as St. John Vianney reminds us if God had something better or greater to give us, He would have given us that.

What we do at the Mass

The Mass is our participation in the life, death, and Resurrection of Christ. We offer our lives, especially the past week's prayer, work, joy, suffering, sacrifice, and love to the Father, in union with Jesus on the altar.

The bread and wine symbolize our gifts to the Lord and we receive our offering back, now transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ.

This holy exchange is the ongoing renewal, continuation, and indeed, the consummation of the marriage between Christ and His Bride, the Church.

In Mass, we thank the Lord for the inestimable gift of salvation offered to us through the Crucifixion, death, and rising of Jesus.

We have been saved from an eternal existence of sin, shame, despair, hopelessness, death, and separation from God.

We have been saved for grace, mercy, joy, peace, forgiveness, and eternal union with the Blessed Trinity. Realizing what we have been saved from and who we have been saved for draws us to a posture of profound gratitude, worship, and praise. (continued next week)

SAINT CHARLES LWANGA and HIS COMPANIONS-(martyred 1886-87) June 3

"Master of Pages," reputedly the handsomest man in all Uganda, Charles Lwanga, lay catechist, courageously led about forty teenaged boys, Catholics and Anglicans, on a forty-mile forced march to martyrdom for their common Christian faith. Teaching each other the hymns of their different churches, they strengthened one another for the ordeal ahead. King Mwanga, himself barely twenty, had ordered them executed for being "those who pray." But these royal pages were the king's male harem, who, now Christians, refused what pious accounts demurely describe as his "unreasonable demands." Some were clubbed to death, most burned alive; the youngest, thirteen-year old Saint Kizito, whom Charles had often shielded from the King's lust; the most tragic, Saint Mbaga, whose father was his executioner! In 1964, Paul VI canonized the young Catholics and praised their Anglican companions, recalling the heroism of early Christianity's African martyrs, which we modern Christians of far less faith never expected to see repeated. Forty years after the pope's words, what does our faith cost us? Heroism aside, how generous is our response?

St. Charles Parish Council

Two years ago, the St. Charles Parish Council Policy was amended. It was decided that St. Charles should have a 9-member council. During this time, the redecoration project was under way and the current council members wanted to see the project completed. Then the pandemic hit, so again the membership amendment was postponed. Now as we are turning the corner on both of these matters, we are looking for nominations of active and dedicated St. Charles Parishioners to fill three positions on the council. You may nominate yourself or another parishioner, with their consent. The new members will start in June and hold a 3-year term. If more than three nominations are received, an election will be held. Please contact the St. Charles Parish office at 725-5595, for more information or for nominations.

We are planning on canning beef again for purchase at our Fall Festival this year. Any donations for the purchase of the canned meat would be very much appreciated. Please leave any donations marked "beef" in the collection basket or leave off at the St. Charles office with Cheryl. Thanks so much.

FEAST OF FAITH

Liturgy and the Holy Trinity

The Trinity is the central mystery of our faith. We believe that God is one, yet three: total unity and rich diversity. God is not a monolith, but a dynamic community of persons, a perfect, loving harmony of three. And the liturgy is the work of the Trinity. We begin all our liturgical celebrations with the sign of the cross, a reminder of our Trinitarian baptism, and the simplest of all professions of our faith. We believe that God is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and we gather in the name of this triune God. Throughout the Mass, we address our prayers to God the Father, through Christ our Lord, in the Spirit's power. And the Father hears our prayer, transforming bread and wine into the Body and Blood of his Son by the Holy Spirit. The Church is "the sacrament of trinitarian communion" (Sacramentum Caritatis, 16). It is the Trinity who holds us together as well. In the words of Saint Cyprian, we are "a people made one by the unity of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit" (quoted in Sacramentum Caritatis, 16).

Reflection

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..." - ROMANS 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us?

THE HOLY TRINITY

If we take a look at our self, each human is made up of a mind, a body, and a soul, and yet we are still only one person.

A fire has flames, heat, and light, but yet it is still just one fire.

When you hear a person's speech, you are hearing three things - his words, his thoughts, and his voice, yet it is still one speech.

GOD - the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Three Persons, yet One God in Trinity. The Holy Trinity.

Laws which legitimize the direct killing of innocent human beings through abortion or euthanasia are in complete opposition to the inviolable right to life proper to every individual; they thus deny the equality of everyone before the law.
